LEARN ABOUT CAREERS IN...

CREATIVE ARTS

Tuesday, February 2 | 5:30 p.m.
William Johnston Building G040
Are you interested in a career where you can use your talent in the visual or performing arts? Do you enjoy using your imagination to problem solve or create things?

LIBERAL ARTS/HUMANITIES

Tuesday, February 16 | 5 p.m.
Dunlap Success Center 2208
Are you interested in the study of culture, arts, literature, history, or language? Do you want to develop analytical and critical thinking skills?

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING, MATHEMATICS

Tuesday, February 23 | 5:30 p.m.
William Johnston Building G040
Do you like identifying and solving complex problems? Do you like to stay informed about the latest technologies?

BUSINESS FOR ALL MAJORS

Tuesday, March 1 | 5:30 p.m.
William Johnston Building G040
Are you interested in marketing, sales, or management? Are you interested in running your own business? Do you like to analyze, compare, and interpret facts and figures?

HOSTED BY THE CAREER CENTER AND THE ADVISING FIRST CENTER FOR EXPLORATORY STUDENTS
COMMUNICATION

Monday, March 28 | 5:30 p.m.
Williams Building 013 (English Common Room)

Do you enjoy reading, writing, and editing? Do you enjoy developing creative posts on social media? Do you want to use your language and writing skills in your career?

HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Wednesday, February 24 | 5:15 p.m.
Oglesby Union 315

Do you enjoy health and wellness? Interested in pursuing a career in the health professions field? Wondering what your career options are to help improve the well-being of your community?

CRIMINOLOGY

Friday, March 25 | 3 p.m.
Claude Pepper Center, Broad Auditorium

What are some deal breakers for becoming employed in the government or security field? What experiences can you gain now to prepare? How is cybersecurity shaping this work?

ENGLISH

Monday, March 28 | 5:30 p.m.
Williams Building 013 (English Common Room)

Do you enjoy reading, writing, and editing? Do you enjoy developing creative posts on social media? Do you want to use your language and writing skills in your career?

SOCIAL SCIENCE AND PUBLIC POLICY

Wednesday, March 30 | 4 p.m.
Dunlap Success Center 2201/02

Do you want to know about careers related to your major? Are you interested in learning from alumni about their career paths?